

Only 19 per cent, or approximately US$ 64,682 of the US$ 329 million appealed through the 2017 UNRWA Syria Regional Crisis Emergency Appeal, has been funded. The Agency continues to be in dire need of essential contributions to meet the basic needs of Palestine refugees remaining in Syria.

Sector requirements 2017 (US$)

* Data Source: Financial Tracking and Monitoring Report, June 2017

Cash assistance

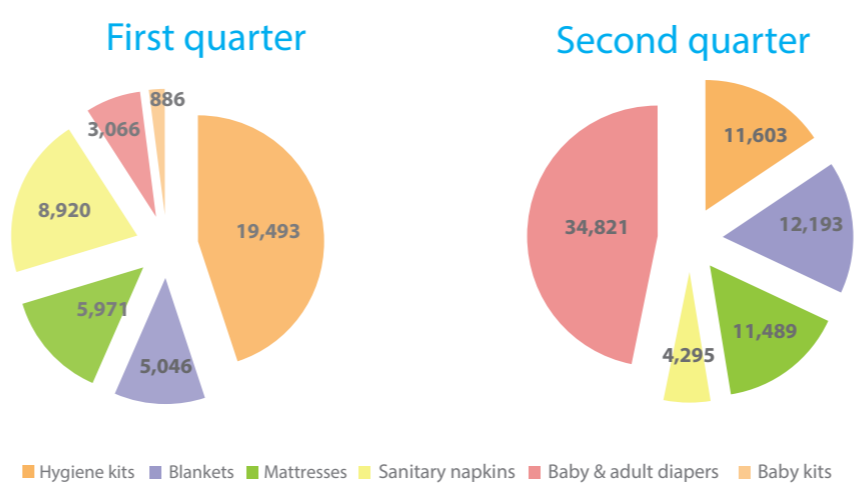

According to a verification exercise conducted at the end of 2016, 438,000 Palestine refugees remain in Syria. Out of those, 418,000 individuals, or 95 per cent, rely on humanitarian assistance, including cash, food and non-food items, to survive and 254,000 were displaced at least once within the country.

Food assistance

NFI Non-food item assistance

- 55 UNRWA-managed schools in government buildings
- 46 UNRWA schools
- 101 schools
- 45,478 students
- 3,812 sat the ninth-grade national exam
- 3,044 passed the exam
- 80% success rate of ninth-graders
- 65.83% national average in Syria
- 15 health centres
- 11 health points
- 570,175 health consultations
- 72,298 dental consultations
- 9 collective shelters
- 2,306 individuals in January
- 1,968 individuals in June
- 15% decrease of individuals since January 2017
- 5 family support offices
- 2,470 protection cases identified
- 2,304 protection cases assisted
- 1,500 hygiene kits
- 1,500 food parcels
- 50 kg of medicines
- 1 Khan Eshieh convoy
- 2 assessment missions
- 12,578 newly displaced following acute emergency situations in Damascus, Dera'a and Khan Eshieh.
- 3,244 food parcels
- 14,707 WASH items and NFIs