Palestine refugee students go back to school in Syria

On 2 September 2019, UNRWA schools opened their doors to students across Syria for the academic year 2019/2020 despite a major financial crisis. A total of 50,143 students (25,482 male, 24,661 female) from grades 1 to 9 enrolled in 103 UNRWA-run schools in Damascus, Homs, Hama, Aleppo, Latakia, and Dera’a governorates.

UNRWA-run schools in Damascus, Homs, Hama, Aleppo, Latakia, and Dera’a governorates.

The boundaries shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Date: October 2019
Sources: UNRWA