GENERAL

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1. Scope</th>
<th>Bidders are invited to submit a bid for the requirements specified in Section 5: Schedule of Requirements, in accordance with this Invitation to Bid (ITB). A summary of the scope of the bid is included in Section 3: Data Sheet. Bidders shall adhere to all the requirements of this ITB, including any amendment made in writing by UNRWA.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Interpretation of the ITB</td>
<td>Any bid submitted will be regarded as an offer by the bidder and does not constitute or imply the acceptance of the bid by UNRWA. UNRWA is under no obligation to award a contract to any bidder as a result of this ITB.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
| 3. Supplier Code of Conduct | All bidders must read the United Nations Supplier Code of Conduct and acknowledge that it provides the minimum standards expected of suppliers to the UN. The Code of Conduct, which includes principles on labour, human rights, environment and ethical conduct may be found at the UN website. The bidder must acknowledge that UNRWA strictly enforces a policy of zero tolerance on proscribed practices, including fraud, corruption, collusion, unethical or unprofessional practices. In pursuance of this policy, UNRWA:

(a) Shall reject a bid if it determines that the selected bidder has engaged in any corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the contract in question;
(b) Further to UNRWA’s vendor sanctions policy, shall declare a vendor ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period, to be awarded a contract with UNRWA or any other entity of the United Nations system of organizations if at any time it determines that the vendor has engaged in any corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing a UNRWA contract.

UNRWA has adopted a zero-tolerance policy on gifts and hospitality. In view of this, UNRWA personnel is prohibited from accepting any gift, even of a nominal value, including drinks, meals, food products, hospitality, calendars, stationery, transportation, recreational trips to sporting or cultural events, theme parks or offers of holidays, or and any other forms of benefits. Proposers shall not offer any forms of gifts, hospitality or benefits to UNRWA personnel.

Consistent with the United Nations Supplier Code of Conduct, by submitting a Proposal, the Proposer certifies that:

1. the prices offered in the Proposal have been arrived at independently, without any consultation, communication, or agreement in any manner that would result in restriction of competition with any other Proposer or competitor relating to (a) those prices; (b) the intention to submit a Proposal, and/or (c) the methods or factors used to calculate the prices offered;
2. the prices in the Proposal have not been and will not be knowingly disclosed by the Proposer, directly or indirectly, to any other Proposer or competitor before UNRWA issues an award under this solicitation; and
3. no attempt has been made or will be made by the Proposer to induce any other entity to submit or not to submit a Proposal for the purpose of restricting competition. |
4. Eligible bidders

Bidders shall have the legal capacity to enter into a binding contract with UNRWA. Registration with UNGM at Level 1 is strongly encouraged for all vendors wishing to conduct business with UNRWA. Instructions on how to register with UNGM can be found on the UNGM website.

All bidders found to have a conflict of interest shall be disqualified. Bidders may be considered to have a conflict of interest if they are or have been associated in the past, with a firm or any of its affiliates that have been engaged by UNRWA to provide consulting services for the preparation of the design, specifications, and other documents to be used for the procurement of the goods, services or works required in the present procurement process.

Bidders shall not be eligible to submit a bid if at the time of bid submission:

- is included in the Ineligibility List, hosted by UNGM, that aggregates information disclosed by Agencies, Funds or Programs of the UN System;
- is included in the Consolidated United Nations Security Council Sanctions List, including the UN Security Council Resolution 1267/1989 list;
- is included in the World Bank Corporate Procurement Listing of Non-Responsible Vendors and World Bank Listing of Ineligible Firms and Individuals.

5. Proprietary information

The ITB documents and any specifications, plans, drawings, patterns, samples or information issued or furnished by UNRWA are issued solely for the purpose of enabling a bid to be completed and may not be used for any other purpose. The ITB documents and any additional information provided to bidders shall remain the property of UNRWA. All documents which may form part of the bid will become the property of UNRWA, who will not be required to return them to your firm.

6. Publicity

During the ITB process, a bidder is not permitted to create any publicity in connection with the ITB.

SOLICITATION DOCUMENTS

7. Clarification of solicitation documents

Bidders may request clarifications on any of the ITB documents no later than the date indicated in Section 3: Data Sheet. Any request for clarification must be sent in writing in the manner indicated in Section 3: Data Sheet. Explanations or interpretations provided by personnel other than the named contact person will not be considered binding or official.

UNRWA will provide the responses to clarifications through the method specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.

UNRWA shall endeavour to provide responses to clarifications in an expeditious manner, but any delay in such response shall not cause an obligation on the part of UNRWA to extend the submission date of the bids, unless UNRWA deems that such an extension is justified and necessary.

8. Amendment of solicitation documents

At any time prior to the deadline of bid submission, UNRWA may for any reason, such as in response to a clarification requested by a bidder, modify the ITB in the form of an amendment to the ITB. Amendments will be made available to all prospective bidders.

UNRWA may extend the deadline for submission of bid to give the bidders reasonable time to incorporate the amendment into their bids.
9. Cost of preparation of bid
The bidder shall bear all costs related to the preparation and/or submission of the bid, regardless of whether its bid is selected or not. UNRWA shall not be responsible or liable for those costs, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the procurement process.

10. Language
The bid, as well as any related correspondence exchanged by the bidder and UNRWA, shall be written in the language(s) specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.

11. Documents establishing eligibility and qualifications of the bidder
The bidder shall furnish documentary evidence of its status as an eligible and qualified vendor, using the Forms provided in Section 7 and providing the documents required in those forms. In order to award a contract to a bidder, its qualifications must be documented to UNRWA's satisfaction.

12. Technical bid
The bidder is required to submit a technical bid using the Form provided in Section 7 and taking into consideration the requirements in the ITB.

13. Price Schedule
The Price Schedule shall be prepared using the Form provided in Section 7 and taking into consideration the requirements in the ITB.

The prices and discounts quoted by the bidder shall conform to the requirements specified below.

- All items and lots (if applicable) must be listed and priced separately.
- The price to be quoted shall be the total price of the bid.
- The bidder shall quote any unconditional discounts and indicate the method for their application.
- The INCOTERM shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the 2020 edition of INCOTERMS, published by The International Chamber of Commerce. The INCOTERM rules and place of destination is specified in Section 5: Schedule of Requirements.
- Prices quoted by the bidder shall be fixed during the bidder’s performance of the contract and not subject to variation on any account, unless otherwise specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.

14. Currencies
All prices shall be quoted in the currency or currencies indicated in Section 3: Data Sheet.

- For the purposes of comparison of proposals, UNRWA will convert the currency quoted in the proposal into the UNRWA preferred currency, in accordance with the UN Operational Rate of Exchange on the closing date.

15. Duties and taxes
Article II, Section 7, of the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities provides, inter alia, that the United Nations, including UNRWA as a subsidiary organ, is exempt from all direct taxes, except charges for public utility services, and is exempt from customs restrictions, duties, and charges of a similar nature in respect of articles imported or exported for its official use. All bids shall be submitted net of any direct taxes and any other taxes and duties, unless otherwise specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.

16. Bid validity period
Bids shall remain valid for the period specified in Section 3: Data Sheet, commencing on the deadline for submission of bids. A bid valid for a shorter period may be rejected by UNRWA and rendered non-responsive.

During the bid validity period, the bidder shall maintain its original bid without any change, including the availability of the key personnel, the proposed rates and the total price.

In exceptional circumstances, prior to the expiration of the bid validity period, UNRWA may request bidders to extend the period of validity of their bids. The request and the responses shall be made in writing, and shall be considered integral to the bid.

If the bidder agrees to extend the validity of its bid, it shall be done without any change to the original bid, but will be required to extend the validity of the bid security, if required, for the period of the extension, and in compliance with Article 17 (Bid security) in all respects.

The bidder has the right to refuse to extend the validity of its bid without forfeiting the bid security, if required, in which case, the bid shall not be further evaluated.

17. Bid Security

A bid security, if required by Section 3: Data Sheet, shall be provided in the amount and form indicated in the Section 3: Data Sheet. The bid security shall be valid for a minimum of thirty (30) days after the final date of validity of the bid.

The bid security shall be included along with the bid. If a bid security is required by the ITB but is not found in the bid, the offer may be rejected.

If the bid security amount or its validity period is found to be less than is required by UNRWA, UNRWA may reject the bid.

In the event an electronic submission is allowed in Section 3: Data Sheet, bidders shall include a copy of the bid security in their bid and the original of the bid security must be sent via courier or hand delivery as per the instructions in Section 3: Data Sheet.

Unsuccessful bidders’ bid securities will be discharged/returned as promptly as possible after the expiration of the period of bid validity prescribed by UNRWA pursuant to Article 16 (Bid Validity Period).

The bid security may be forfeited by UNRWA, and the bid rejected, in the event of any, or combination, of the following conditions:

- If the bidder withdraws its offer during the period of the bid validity specified in Section 3: Data Sheet, or;
- In the event the successful bidder fails:
  - to sign the Contract after UNRWA has issued an award; or
  - to furnish the Performance Security, insurances, or other documents that UNRWA may require as a condition precedent to the effectivity of the contract that may be awarded to the bidder.

18. Joint Venture, Consortium or Association

If the bidder is a group of legal entities that will form or have formed a Joint Venture (JV), Consortium or Association for bid, each such legal entity will confirm in their joint bid that:

- they have designated one party to act as a lead entity, duly vested with authority to legally bind the members of the JV, Consortium or Association jointly and severally, and this will be evidenced by a duly notarised Agreement among the legal entities, which will be submitted along with the bid; and
- if they are awarded the contract, the contract shall be entered into by and between UNRWA and the designated lead entity, who will be acting for and on behalf of all the member entities comprising the joint venture.

After the deadline for submission of bid, the lead entity identified to represent the JV, Consortium or Association shall not be altered without the prior written consent of UNRWA.
If a JV, Consortium or Association’s bid is the bid selected for award, UNRWA will award the contract to the joint venture, in the name of its designated lead entity. The lead entity will sign the contract for and on behalf of all other member entities.

The lead entity and the member entities of the JV, Consortium or Association shall abide by the provisions of Article 19 (Only one Bid) herein in respect of submitting only one bid.

The description of the organization of the JV, Consortium or Association must clearly define the expected role of each of the entities in the joint venture in delivering the requirements of the ITB, both in the bid and the JV, Consortium or Association Agreement. All entities that comprise the JV, Consortium or Association shall be subject to the eligibility and qualification assessment by UNRWA.

A JV, Consortium or Association in presenting its track record and experience should clearly differentiate between:

- Those that were undertaken together by the JV, Consortium or Association; and
- Those that were undertaken by the individual entities of the JV, Consortium or Association.

Previous contracts completed by individual experts working privately but who are permanently or were temporarily associated with any of the member firms cannot be claimed as the experience of the JV, Consortium or Association or those of its members, but should only be claimed by the individual experts themselves in their presentation of their individual credentials.

JV, Consortium or Associations are encouraged for high value, multi-sectoral requirements when the spectrum of expertise and resources required may not be available within one firm.

19. Only one bid

The bidder (including the individual members of any Joint Venture) shall submit only one bid, either in its own name or as part of a Joint Venture.

Bids submitted by two (2) or more bidders shall all be rejected if they are found to have any of the following:

- they have at least one controlling partner, director or shareholder in common; or
- any one of them receive or have received any direct or indirect subsidy from the other/s; or
- they have the same legal representative for purposes of this ITB; or
- they have a relationship with each other, directly or through common third parties, that puts them in a position to have access to information about, or influence on the bid of another bidder regarding this ITB process;
- they are subcontractors to each other’s bid, or a subcontractor to one bid also submits another bid under its name as lead bidder; or some key personnel proposed to be in the team of one bidder participates in more than one bid received for this ITB process. This condition relating to the personnel, does not apply to subcontractors being included in more than one bid.

20. Alternative bids

Unless otherwise specified in Section 3: Data Sheet, alternative bids shall not be considered. If submission of alternative bid is allowed in Section 3: Data Sheet, a bidder may submit an alternative bid, but only if it also submits a bid conforming to the ITB requirements. Where the conditions for its acceptance are met, or justifications are clearly established, UNRWA reserves the right to award a contract based on an alternative bid.
| 21. Pre-bid conference | When appropriate, a pre-bid conference will be conducted at the date, time and location according to any instructions specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.
If it is stated in Section 3: Data Sheet that the pre-bid conference is mandatory, a bidder which does not attend the pre-bid conference shall become ineligible to submit a bid under this ITB.
If it is stated in Section 3: Data Sheet that the pre-bid conference is not mandatory, non-attendance shall not result in disqualification of an interested bidder.
UNRWA will not issue any formal answers to questions from bidders regarding the ITB or bid process during the pre-bid conference. All questions shall be submitted in accordance with Article 39 (Clarification of Bids).
The pre-bid conference shall be conducted for the purpose of providing background information only. Without limiting Article 24 (Bidders Responsibility) bidders shall not rely upon any information, statement or representation made at the pre-bid conference unless that information, statement or representation is confirmed by UNRWA in writing.
Answers to questions raised during the pre-bid conference will be disseminated as specified in Section 3: Data Sheet. No verbal statement made during the conference shall modify the terms and conditions of the ITB, unless specifically incorporated in the minutes of the bidder’s conference or issued/posted as an amendment to ITB. |
|---|---|
| 22. Site inspection | When appropriate, a site inspection will be conducted at the date, time and location and according to any instructions specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.
If it is stated in Section 3: Data Sheet that the site inspection is mandatory, a bidder which does not attend the site inspection shall become ineligible to submit a bid under this ITB.
If it is stated in Section 3: Data Sheet that the site inspection is not mandatory, non-attendance, shall not result in disqualification of an interested bidder.
Bidders participating in a site inspection shall be responsible for making and obtaining any visa arrangements that may be required for the bidders to participate in a site inspection.
Prior to attending a site inspection, bidders may need to execute an indemnity and a waiver releasing UNRWA in respect of any liability that may arise from:
(i) loss of or damage to any real or personal property;
(ii) personal injury, disease or illness to, or death of, any person;
(iii) financial loss or expense, arising out of the carrying out of that site inspection; and
(iv) transportation by UNRWA to the site (if provided) as a result of any accidents or malicious acts by third parties.
UNRWA will not issue any formal answers to questions from bidders regarding the ITB or bid process during a site inspection. All questions shall be submitted in accordance with Article 7 (Clarification of solicitation documents).
A site inspection will be conducted for the purpose of providing background information only. Without limiting Article 24 (Bidders Responsibility), bidders shall not rely upon any information, statement or representation made at a site |
| 23. Errors or omissions | Bidders shall immediately notify UNRWA in writing of any ambiguities, errors, omissions, discrepancies, inconsistencies or other faults in any part of the ITB, with full details of those ambiguities, errors, omissions, discrepancies, inconsistencies or other faults.
Bidders shall not benefit from such ambiguities, errors, omissions, discrepancies, inconsistencies or other faults. |

| 24. Bidders responsibility to inform themselves | Bidders shall be responsible for informing themselves in preparing their bid. In this regard, bidders shall ensure that they:
- examine and fully inform themselves in relation to all aspects of the ITB, including the Contract and all other documents included or referred to in this ITB;
- review the ITB to ensure that they have a complete copy of all documents;
- obtain and examine all other information relevant to the project and the scope of the requirements available on reasonable enquiry;
- verify all relevant representations, statements and information, including those contained or referred to in the ITB or made orally during any clarification meeting or site inspection or any discussion with UNRWA, its employees or agents;
- attend any Pre-bid conference or site inspection if it is mandatory under this ITB;
- fully inform and satisfy themselves as to requirements of any relevant authorities and laws that apply, or may in the future apply, to the supply of the goods, works and/or services; and
- form their own assessment of the nature and extent of the goods, works and/or services required as included in Section 5: Schedule of Requirements and properly account for all requirements in their bid. |

| 25. No material change(s) in circumstances | The bidder shall inform UNRWA of any change(s) of circumstances arising during the ITB process, including but not limited to:
- a change affecting any declaration, accreditation, license or approval;
- major re-organisational changes, company re-structuring, a take-over, buy-out or similar event(s) affecting the operation and/or financing of the bidder or its major sub-contractors;
- a change to any information on which UNRWA may rely in assessing bids. |

SUBMISSION AND OPENING OF BIDS

| 26. Instruction for bid submission | The bidder shall submit a duly signed and complete bid comprising the documents and forms in accordance with requirements in Section 3: Data Sheet. The Price Schedule shall be submitted together with the Technical Bid. The bid shall be delivered according to the method specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.
The bid shall be signed by the bidder or person(s) duly authorized to commit the bidder. The authorization shall be communicated through a document evidencing such authorization issued by the legal representative of the bidding entity, or, if requested, a Power of Attorney, accompanying the bid.
Bidders must be aware that the mere act of submission of a bid, in and of itself, implies that the bidder fully accepts UNRWA's General Conditions of Contract, which are available on the UNRWA website. |
| 27. Deadline for bid submission | Complete bids must be received by UNRWA in the manner, and no later than the date and time, specified in Section 3: Data Sheet. If any doubt exists as to the time zone in which the Bid should be submitted, refer to the Time and Date website. It shall be the sole responsibility of the bidders to ensure that their bid is received by the closing date and time.

UNRWA may, at its discretion, extend this deadline for the submission of bids by amending the solicitation documents in accordance with Article 8 (Amendment of solicitation documents). In this case, all rights and obligations of UNRWA and bidders subject to the previous deadline will thereafter be subject to the new deadline as extended. |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 28. Withdrawal, substitution and modification of bids | A bidder may withdraw, substitute or modify its bid after it has been submitted at any time prior to the deadline for submission by sending a written notice to UNRWA, duly signed by an authorized representative. The corresponding substitution or modification of the bid, if any, must accompany the respective written notice. All notices must be submitted in the same manner as specified for submission of bids.

If submission via mail / courier is acceptable as per Section 3: Data Sheet, proposals must be clearly marked as “WITHDRAWAL”, “SUBSTITUTION” OR “MODIFICATION”.

However, after the deadline for bid submission, the bids shall remain valid and open for acceptance by UNRWA for the entire bid validity period, as may be extended. |
| 29. Storage of bids | Bids received prior to the deadline of submission and the time of opening shall be securely kept unopened until the specified bid opening date stated in Section 3: Data Sheet. No responsibility shall be attached to UNRWA for prematurely opening an improperly addressed and/or identified bid. |
| 30. Bid opening | Bids will be opened by a committee formed by UNRWA consisting of at least three (3) personnel including the chairperson. |
| 31. Late bids | Any bid received by UNRWA after the deadline for submission of bids will be destroyed unless the bidder requests that it be returned and assumes the responsibility and expenses for the re-possession of the returned bidding documents.

In exceptional circumstances, late bids may be accepted if it is determined that the submission was sent in ample time prior to the bid closing and the delay could not be reasonably foreseen by the bidder or was due to force majeure or in other cases where UNRWA at its sole discretion determines it is in the interest of the Agency to accept a late bid. |

EVALUATION OF BIDS

| 32. Confidentiality | Information relating to the examination, evaluation, and comparison of bids, and the recommendation of contract award, shall not be disclosed to bidders or any other persons not officially concerned with such process, even after publication of the contract award.

Any effort by a bidder or anyone on behalf of the bidder to influence UNRWA in the examination, evaluation and comparison of the bids or contract award decisions may, at UNRWA’s decision, result in the rejection of its bid and may subsequently be subject to the application of prevailing UNRWA’s vendor sanctions procedures. |
| 33. Evaluation of bids | UNRWA shall evaluate a bid using only the methodologies and criteria defined in this ITB. No other criteria or methodology shall be permitted.

UNRWA shall conduct the evaluation solely on the basis of the bids received according to the evaluation criteria in Section 4. |
<thead>
<tr>
<th>34. Preliminary examination</th>
<th>UNRWA shall examine the bids to determine whether they are complete with respect to minimum documentary requirements, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order, among other indicators that may be used at this stage. UNRWA reserves the right to reject any bid at this stage.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>35. Evaluation of eligibility and qualification</td>
<td>Eligibility and Qualification of the bidder will be evaluated against the Minimum Eligibility/Qualification requirements specified in Section 4: Evaluation Criteria and in Article 4 (Eligible Bidders).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>36. Evaluation of technical bids</td>
<td>Technical evaluation will be conducted to establish substantial compliance, as per the criteria included in Section 4: Evaluation Criteria. </tr>
<tr>
<td>37. Evaluation of prices</td>
<td>The prices of bids found to be substantially compliant, will be compared to identify the most substantially compliant bid which represents the lowest overall costs to UNRWA.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 38. Post-qualification | UNRWA reserves the right to undertake a post-qualification assessment, aimed at determining, to its satisfaction, the validity of the information provided by the bidder. Such exercise shall be fully documented and may include, but need not be limited to, all or any combination of the following:
   a) Verification of accuracy, correctness and authenticity of information provided by the bidder;
   b) Validation of extent of compliance to the ITB requirements and evaluation criteria based on what has so far been found by the evaluation team;
   c) Inquiry and reference checking with Government entities with jurisdiction on the bidder, or with previous clients, or any other entity that may have done business with the bidder;
   d) Inquiry and reference checking with previous clients on the performance on on-going or completed contracts, including physical inspections of previous works, as deemed necessary;
   e) Physical inspection of the bidder’s offices, branches or other places where business transpires, with or without notice to the bidder;
   f) Other means that UNRWA may deem appropriate, at any stage within the selection process, prior to awarding the contract. |
| 39. Clarification of bids | UNRWA may request clarification or further information in writing from the bidders at any time during the evaluation process.
UNRWA may use such information in interpreting and evaluating the relevant bid but is under no obligation to take it into account. |
| 40. Responsiveness of bid | UNRWA’s determination of a bid’s responsiveness is to be based on the contents of the bid itself. A substantially responsive bid is one that conforms to all the terms, conditions, and specifications of the bidding documents without material deviation, reservation, or omission. A material deviation, reservation, or omission is one that:
   a) affects in any substantial way the scope, quality, or performance of the goods, services and/or works specified in the contract; or
   b) limits in any substantial way, inconsistent with the bidding documents, UNRWA’s rights or the bidder’s obligations under the contract; or
   c) if rectified would unfairly affect the competitive position of other bidders presenting substantially responsive bids. |

<tr>
<td>b) if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c) if there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail.</td>
