

Acquiring Knowledge and Skills

UNRWA operates one of the largest school systems in the Middle East, teaching some half a million children in 700 schools. The Agency has been the main provider of primary education to Palestine refugees for sixty years.

As well as running schools, UNRWA provides vocational training for young people to help them gain further skills for the workforce.

At UNRWA we believe that each and every child has the right to an education that helps them achieve their full human potential. UNRWA's education system helps refugee children to thrive, achieve, and to grow up understanding their rights and respecting the rights of others. Moreover, UNRWA provides young people with the opportunity to learn skills that will lead to work. This helps individuals and families escape poverty and attain their goals. We believe that to invest in the education and training of Palestine refugees is to invest in peace. Peace starts here.

UNRWA relies on donations. The Agency currently faces an unprecedented shortfall in funds needed to provide its essential services.

UNRWA provides assistance, protection and advocacy for some 5 million registered Palestine refugees in Jordan, Lebanon, Syria and the occupied Palestinian territory, pending a solution to their plight. The Agency's services encompass education, health care, social safety-net, camp infrastructure and improvement, community support, microfinance and emergency response, including in times of armed conflict.

Through these services UNRWA strives to help Palestine refugees achieve a decent standard of living, long and healthy lives, knowledge and skills and full enjoyment of human rights. These goals are formulated according to the UN criteria for human development.
